October 2018

Hello, Cowboys and Cowgirls,

Well, by now, everyone is back home or on to their next great adventure. I'd like to start off with a huge thank you! The shooters of Comin' at Cha, 2018 endured the 7 inches of rain on Side Match day, the mud on Main Match day, and the really close quarters for camping for the weekend. I am glad so many of you stayed on the range and within earshot of the cannon. We gave away 24 firearms to lucky shooters from all over the country. It was a great time!

Let's move on to our next great adventure – Comin' at Cha, 2019! I've attached an entry form for next year's match. Please join us for another exciting match. Remember to sign up for an additional category. I encourage you to get entered for two opportunities to win a category. It can happen! Spur Roberts won the Overall and came in second Overall winner, too. Congratulations for a job well done, Spur! Shooting an additional category only costs an additional $35 with most, if not all, of the proceeds going towards the entertainment venue.

This year's entertainment for Friday night will be Blackwater and The Milkbone Band on stage for a great performance. Back by popular demand will be KC Eliminator, the premier ZZ Top Tribute band. These shows are unbelievably over the top!

I promise to have more parking than ever and a Texas smile that only Ellie can love. Our crew will put together a great shoot for you. Thank you again! We'll see ya on the trail! Comin' at Cha, 2019 is right around the corner.

See ya in the Badlands,
T-Bone
